introducing STACY IEST HSU

Stacy lives in the San Francisco Bay Area with her husband and three children. She has been a textile and product designer for over ten years and has designed for such retailers as Janie and Jack, GapKids, Target, and Tiny Prints among others. Recently she decided to branch out independently to market her own line of original creations. For Stacy it has been a dream come true to work with Moda and she can't wait to share her exclusively designed collection with the quilt and crafting community.

Stacy approaches designing a collection a lot like telling a story – a skill honed and inspired by many years of reading books to her kids. When she is not designing, Stacy enjoys spending time with her family, going to the beach, and working in her garden and yard.

Bring the classic Little Red Riding Hood tale to life with this modern fabric collection Lil Red. What better way to tell this story than a sweet cut and sew doll panel with simple instructions to make your own Lil Red complete with her cape, a blanket and pillow to take along to visit Grandma, and of course the Big Bad (and cute) Wolf. Mix and match the fun and whimsical coordinating fabrics within the collection to create an entire fairy tale world!
