

FORAGED, FOUND, & Hand Me Down

Foraged, Found & Hand Me Down is a curated blend of the charm I find in discovered treasures in nature and evoking memories of items passed down.

Each print in the collection is a tribute to the beauty and little details in forgotten items, inspired by vintage textiles (like my handkerchief collection), faded details (as in a delicate weave of all the handmade baskets I love to collect), and nature's organic textures (such as the shape of a leaf or the tiniest of petals).

With a muted palette of rich tones including rust, gold, navy, flax, forest, and plum, each design plays off the next, inviting you to mix patterns and colors. Whether on a walk through the country, scavenging items at an estate sale, or going through hand-me-down items from loved ones, I find so much joy in repurposing and styling foraged, found, and hand-me-down pieces in our own home.

I hope you to see you make your own keepsake and heirloom projects with this collection. Foraged, Found, & Hand Me Down also offers a statement floral panel in two color stories, perfect to get you started in creating a piece for generations to come.
